² Parental responsibility is defined in the Children Act 1989 as “all the rights, duties, powers and responsibilities and authority which by law a parent of a child has in relation to the child and his or her property”. It equates to legal responsibility for the child. The child’s mother automatically has parental responsibility for her child from birth. A father usually has parental responsibility if he’s either: (a) married to the child’s mother; or (b) listed on the birth certificate (after a certain date, depending on which part of the UK the child was born in). You can apply for parental responsibility if you don’t automatically have it (for example in cases of adoption). If you have any doubts about whether you do or do not have parental responsibility for the child you may wish to seek legal advice. Further information is also available here:

special educational needs as part of the School's registration and admissions process) is and remains complete and accurate; and

- (iii) our child has the right to enter, live and study in the United Kingdom and, if applicable, we have made appropriate arrangements for our child's visa application, travel, reception, living and care in the UK. If we require the School to sponsor our child and issue a Certificate of Acceptance of Studies (CAS) to our child so that they may apply for relevant permission to enter or stay in the UK as a student (for which the School may charge an administration fee), we have previously notified the School of this. Please note, if the School has made your child a conditional offer, then it will not be able to issue you with a CAS until the conditions of that offer have been met.

If you subsequently change your mind and decide to withdraw your child before he or she takes up their place, you may lose your deposit and be responsible for paying us fees in lieu of notice – see Clause 3 of the terms and conditions for more information about this.
